GENERAL EXCHANGE SERVICES TARIFF
Duo Voice Ready Service

A. Description

N

Duo Voice Ready Service ("DVRS") is an optional service offering available to subscribers who have elected to forgo rates and services available to local exchange services provided under Part III of this tariff. DVRS permits service subscribers to complete voice and emergency calls on a casual usage or as-needed basis as follows:

1. 911/E911 Dialing
2. Calls within the Local Calling Scope as defined in Part II of this tariff, subject to cap and overage fees provided for in (C) of this Section
3. Unlimited Incoming Calls - local and long distance
4. Unlimited Originating 800 Calls
5. Access to Operator Services
6. Access to 411 Directory Assistance Services
7. Access to interexchange carriers on a presubscribed and/or casual calling basis

B. Regulations

N

1. DVRS is only available to Residential subscribers who are served via the Company's fiber network.
2. DVRS is available only when purchased with a qualifying Broadband and Internet Service and/or Video Service from the Company or its affiliate subject to applicable terms and conditions that may govern those services. DVRS is not a stand-alone service and failure to maintain a qualifying service will result in conversion of DVRS service to a comparable local exchange service.
3. Only the optional calling features listed in this Section as provided under Part II of this tariff may be purchased with DVRS. No other optional calling features are permitted with DVRS. Optional calling features permitted:
 - a. Call Trace
 - b. Subscriber-Activated Toll Blocking services
4. Directory listing services, including additional listing and non-published services are available as provided for elsewhere in this tariff.
5. Rates for the DVRS are in addition to applicable E911, Subscriber Line Charges, Universal Service Fees, taxes and other customary fees that are provided for in Company Tariffs and rate sheets.
6. DVRS is not available to lifeline subscribers.
